Head Coach: Todd Throckmorton

Assistant Coaches: Brian Vye, Brenton Illum, Trent Linville, Shane Schut, Dave Varnell, Keith Conner

FORT HAYS STATE VS. FORT LEWIS

TODAY'S GAME

THE GAME: Today's game between the Fort Hays State University "Tigers" (1-4, 0-3) and the Fort Lewis College "Skyhawks" (0-5, 0-3) is the homecoming game for FHSU. Gametime is scheduled for 2:00 p.m. Today the homecoming king and queen will be crowned during halftime of the game.

THE COACHES: Tim O'Connor is in his second season of directing the FHSU football program. The Boise State University graduate has been a Tiger head or assistant coach since 1992. His 2001 squad finished the season 3-8 after several heartbreaking losses. This year's squad was picked by conference coaches to finish fifth in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and is currently 1-4 on the season. Fort Lewis head coach Todd Throckmorton is in his third season of directing the Skyhawk football squad. The 1987 Missouri Western graduate has posted a record of 5-22 while with the Skyhawks Throckmorton is 0-2 versus the Tigers as head coach of Fort Lewis.

THE SERIES: Today marks the 15th time that the two schools have met on the gridiron. The Tigers lead the series 11-3. FHSU has outscored the Skyhawks 481 to 281 over the 14 games played. The Tigers have scored 35 or more points in 9 of the 14 games. Last year's game was one of FHSU's three wins as the Tigers roared to victory 37-17. Fort Lewis' wins have come in 1996 (24-21), 1997 (30-23) and 1999 (26-6).

ABOUT THE SKYHAWKS: Fort Lewis ended the 2001 season 2-9 overall and 1-7 in the conference. The Skyhawks defeated Western State and Western New Mexico a year ago. This year they begin the season 0-5 overall and 0-3 in the conference. The Skyhawks return 12 letterwinners and 10 starters from last year's squad.

On offense, the Skyhawks rely on whom several consider the best quarterback in the league. Junior Andrew Webb leads the RMAC averaging 272.8 yards in the air. He has thrown for 1,364 yards, nine touchdowns and five picks. Webb completes 59.1 percent of his throws. With such a prolific passer in Webb, it is only obvious that the Skyhawks' receivers have great stats. Jamal Allen is tied for first in the conference with 35 receptions. The senior wideout has one touchdown and 376 yards this year. Freshman Chris Brewer is third in the conference with 32 catches. He's more of a scoring threat as he's seen the endzone five times. Sophomore Joe Moore leads the squad in rushing. He has averaged 54.6 yards per game this season.

Defensively, the Skyhawks allow more points per game than anyone in the conference other than New Mexico Highlands. Their pass defense is last and allows nearly 300 yards per game. As far as total defense goes, the Skyhawks allow the most yards per game in the league at 517 per contest. They are led by freshman defensive back Joseph Suter. Suter leads the league in tackles averaging 11.0 per game. Darryl Gallegos, a freshman linebacker, shores up the middle. Gallegos leads the RMAC with five forced fumbles this season. Trevor McKenzie, a junior defensive lineman, is tops in the RMAC in tackles for loss(8).

ABOUT THE TIGERS: Fort Hays State will attempt to win their first conference game this season. The Tigers are led offensively by running backs Jason Broom and Charles Lewis. Broom has 381 yards on 84 carries while Lewis has gained 241 yards on 47 attempts. Tight end Billy Finke has caught four passes on the year, three of which have gone for touchdowns. Wideout Andre Freeman leads the squad in receptions with 22 for 277 yards and a touchdown. FHSU leads the conference giving up only 47.2 yards per game to penalties. FLC, meanwhile, is pushed back almost the length of the football field every game. They total 96.8 yards in penalties per contest.

The Tiger defense has been led this year by redshirt freshman Landon Johnson. Johnson leads the team in tackles with 43. He also has two tackles for loss, one quarterback sack and the Tigers' only interception of the season. Shane Ohlde and E.J. Ochs shore up the middle at linebacker. The two have combined for 56 tackles, eight for loss, two quarterback sacks, one pass breakup and a forced fumble. The Tiger defense has been solid against the run this year allowing only 134 yards per game but have allowed over 230 yards through the air.

FHSU has totalled nearly as many first downs (89) as their opponents (96). However, they have lost nine balls on fumbles and two through interceptions while their opponents have lost only three to fumbles and one to interception.
